

How To Play:

Adults receive one (1) BINGO card each. You need to do the activity listed in the square to cross it out. Cross out five (5) squares either across, down, or diagonally to get BINGO. Cross out all the squares and you get a black out!

B I N G O

Read a new author	Watch a favorite childhood movie	Go on a road trip	Read a favorite childhood book	Garden
Try out an ebook	Try out a new genre	Attend a sporting event	Take photos in nature	Visit another library
Read an Iowa author or book	Visit a state or national park	Free!	Watch an Iowa movie	Check out an Iowa musician
Visit a museum or historical site	Bird watch	Listen to an audiobook	Read an international author	Prepare a favorite childhood meal
Go camping	Take a bike ride	Connect with a childhood friend	Go for a walk	Read a travel book

Read Beyond the Beaten Path

BINGO!

BINGO = one (1) raffle ticket

BINGO Blackout = three (3) raffle tickets

Adult Events

Working With the Enemy

Tuesday, June 7th @ 6:30 pm

Presenter and educator Chad W. Timm will discuss the creation of POW camps in the Northern Iowa town of Algona and one in the Southwestern Iowa town of Clarinda. Some of the topics discussed will be life in a prisoner of war camp, community relations, the POW labor program, and branch camps in more than 30 Iowa communities.

In Our Own Voice with NAMI

Thursday, June 30th @ 6 pm

This presentation provides a personal perspective of mental health conditions, as leaders with lived experience talk openly about what it's like to have a mental health condition.

Attendees will be able to ask questions as well as get more information about mental health and the mental health community.

Off the Map

Saturday, July 16th @ 10:30 am

Thousands of towns and communities were established during Iowa's pioneer and railroad era. Discovering and learning about them helps to keep their names and memories from oblivion. Presenter Rosa Snyder takes us on a tour around Iowa exploring a sampling of these idiosyncratic communities in photographs and stories.

Books Off the Beaten Path

In a Sunburned Country by Bill Bryson

Into the Wild by Jon Krakauer

The Stranger in the Woods by Michael Finkel

The Geography of Bliss by Eric Weiner

Travels with Charley: In Search of America by John Steinbeck

Movies Filmed in Iowa

Michael (rural Iowa)

Terms of Endearment (Des Moines)

State Fair (Des Moines)

Children of the Corn (Sioux City, Whiting)

Cedar Rapids (Cedar Rapids)

Movies Set in Iowa

What's Eating Gilbert Grape?

Sleeping with the Enemy

The Music Man

Star Trek (2009)

The Crazies